Dear Bahá'í Friends,

News of the tragic death a few months ago of your precious son Arya Laghaie has recently come to the attention of the Universal House of Justice, which extends to you its loving sympathy. You are assured of the supplications of the House of Justice at the Sacred Threshold for the progress of Arya's radiant soul throughout the worlds of God and for the comfort and solace of your grieving hearts.

With loving Bahá'í greetings,

Department of the Secretariat
